Governor Signs Galgiani's AB 957 "The Buyers Choice Act" aka "The Crab Feed Napkin Bill"

AB 957 will ensure that homebuyers can use local escrow services to provide better service at lesser cost in the purchase of Bank Owned houses.

Sacramento, CA -- Assemblymember Cathleen Galgiani (D - Livingston) announced that Governor Schwarzenegger signed AB 957, "The Buyers Choice Act", over the weekend. Galgiani's bill is an urgency measure which means the law will go into effect immediately after being chaptered by the Secretary of State rather than January of 2010.

"This law will ensure that home buyers have the choice of using local escrow companies, which can offer the best resources and service in the current housing crisis. Local escrow businesses can better assist buyers and expedite the transfer of foreclosed properties to homeowners at lower cost," according to Galgiani. "It also promotes competition for services and protects local jobs and our local economy."
